Walt and Mearsheimer’s “The Israel Lobby”

✓ Fails to Meet Academic Standards
✓ Includes Factual Errors
✓ Carries Anti-Semitic Overtones

The Israel Lobby and US Foreign Policy is a new book by Harvard Professor Stephen Walt and University of Chicago Professor John Mearsheimer. The book is based on an original article, which was widely criticized for failing to meet scholarly standards, for its factual distortions and for its innuendoes about a Jewish conspiracy in the U.S.

StandWithUs has prepared the following booklet to help you counter the misinformation.
“The Israel Lobby” is a biased work that fails to meet basic academic standards.

Here are some important reviews:

Shoddy Scholarship, Distorted Facts and Faulty Analysis

“The ‘facts’ presented by Mearsheimer and Walt suggest a fundamental ignorance of the history with which they deal, and that the ‘evidence’ they deploy is so tendentious as to be evidence only of an acute bias.” 1

– Benny Morris, Historian

“Walt/Mearsheimer’s paper, complete with footnotes that misstate primary sources and ignore others, is worse than embarrassing. It is academic malpractice. No one contests their right to their opinions, but they are not entitled to their own facts – nor to pass them off as the conclusions of ‘scholars.” 2

– Rick Richman, Editor of “Jewish Current Issues”

“[Walt and Mearsheimer] quote only those people who basically have this point of view and don’t take a serious look at anything in a more profound way. It is masquerading as scholarship . . . I would say this is an effort to take a point of view and give it academic legitimacy.” 3

– Dennis Ross, Former U.S. Envoy to the Middle East

“Not only are these charges wildly at variance with what I have personally witnessed in the Oval Office over the years, but they also impugn the loyalty and the unstinting service to America’s national security by public figures . . . . As a Christian, let me add that it is also wrong and unfair to call into question the loyalty of millions of American Jews who have faithfully supported Israel while also working tirelessly and generously to advance America’s cause, both at home and abroad. They are among our finest citizens and should be praised, not pilloried.” 4

– David Gergen, Director of the Center for Public Leadership at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and editor-at-large at U.S. News & World Report.

Walt and Mearsheimer’s Academic Affiliations Do Not Place “The Israel Lobby” Above Criticism

“‘The Israel Lobby’ is a long, bitter, op-ed piece given a patina of respectability because of where the authors are employed.” 5

“[‘The Israel Lobby’] cobbles together a lot of half-truths and untruths that have been out there on the far fringe, and gives them “academic respectability” 6

– Martin Kramer, author and Wexler-Fromer Fellow of the Washington Institute on Near East Policy

“[‘The Israel Lobby’]  really deserves the contempt of the American people … and it amounts to “the same old anti-Semitic and anti-Zionist drivel … dishonest so-called intellectuals [Walt and Mearsheimer] are entitled to their stupidity … [but it is] the right of the rest of us to expose them for being the anti-Semites they are.” 7

“By anti-Semitism one means obsessive and irrationally hostile beliefs about Jews; if one accuses them of disloyalty, subversion or treachery, of having occult powers and of participating in secret combinations that manipulate institutions and governments; if one systematically selects everything unfair, ugly or wrong about Jews as individuals or a group and equally systematically suppresses any exculpatory information – why, yes, this paper is anti-Semitic … It is merely, and unforgivably, bigotry.” 8

– Eliot A. Cohen, Professor at Johns Hopkins University’s School of Advanced International Studies

| "Al Qaeda leaders, including bin Laden, are motivated by Israel's presence in Jerusalem and the plight of the Palestinians."
  – Christopher Hitchens, Investigative Journalist |
| "Bin Laden's gang emerged from a whole series of tough and reactionary battles in Central and Eastern Asia, from the war for a separate Muslim state in the Philippines to the fighting in Kashmir, the Uighur territories in China, and of course Afghanistan. There are hardly any Palestinians in its ranks, and its communiqués have been notable for how little they say about the Palestinian struggle."
  – Daniel Fried, U.S. State Department |
| "If Washington could live with a nuclear Soviet Union, a nuclear China, or even a nuclear North Korea, then it can live with a nuclear Iran."
  – David Gergen, Former Presidential Adviser |
| "I never once saw a decision in the Oval Office to tilt U.S. foreign policy in favor of Israel at the expense of America's interest. Other than Richard Nixon – who occasionally said terrible things about Jews, despite the number on his team – I can't remember any president even talking about an Israeli lobby."
  – David Gergen, Former Presidential Adviser |
| "The Lobby also has significant leverage over the Executive branch. That power derives in part from the influence Jewish voters have on presidential elections."
  – Dore Gold, Former Ambassador to the U.N. |
| "The major breakthroughs in U.S.-Israeli relations occurred after the 1987 Six-Day War…. It was the Israeli military that achieved what AIPAC had not: a general acceptance among U.S. policymakers that close relations with Israel was an asset to U.S. national security and regional interests."

COUNTERPOINT

| "Indeed, the mere existence of the [Israeli] Lobby suggests that unconditional support for Israel is not in the American national interest. If it was, one would not need an organized special interest group to bring it about."
  – Caroline Glick, Journalist |
| "US largesse [to Israel] is especially striking when one realizes that Israel is now a wealthy industrial state with a per capita income roughly equal to South Korea or Spain."
  – Alex Safian, Ph.D. |
| "Israeli officials have long claimed that the Arabs fled because their leaders told them to, but careful scholarship (much of it by Israeli historians like Morris) have demolished this myth."
  – Benny Morris, Historian |
| "Moreover, pro-Arab interest groups are weak to non-existent, which makes the Lobby's task even easier."
  – Dore Gold, Former Ambassador to the U.N. |
| "Does Israel have supporters in the U.S. that back a strong relationship between the two countries? Clearly, networks of such support exist, as they do for U.S. ties with Britain, Greece, Turkey, and India. There are also states like Saudi Arabia that have tried to tilt U.S. policy using a vast array of powerful PR firms, former diplomats, and well-connected officials."

Extremists Endorse “The Israel Lobby”

Former Leader of the KKK David Duke:
“I have read about the report and read one summary already, and I am surprised how excellent it is . . . . It is quite satisfying to see a body in the premier American University essentially come out and validate every major point I have been making since even before the war even started.” 1

Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood’s guidance council, Abdulmo’em Abulfotah:
“I think that the people who wrote that report were working for the interest of the American people.” 2

Hamas
The paper is also getting heavy play on websites operated by the Arab satellite television network Al Jazeera and the Islamic extremist group Hamas.3

Holocaust Denier and director of the Institute for Historical Review Mark Weber:
“The Israel Lobby and US Foreign Policy,” is a “carefully written, judiciously worded and copiously referenced paper.” It should be applauded as a “landmark event and as an important breakthrough.” 4
