

In June 2006 Hamas terrorists kidnapped an Israeli Defense Forces staff sergeant patrolling along the Gaza border inside Israel. His name is Gilad Shalit. He has now been held hostage for five years. Hamas has repeatedly denied Gilad even one visit by a humanitarian group, including the International Committee of the Red Cross, to provide him with proper medical attention. This is in direct violation of the Third Geneva Convention.

ISRAEL WANTS PEACE, BUT...

PEACE
TAKES TWO
